

I believe any move that would threaten the existence of K-LOVE radio station would be a detriment to the community. K-LOVE is an uplifting station in a world of substandard values and provides a safe place to tune for family listening. We have enough trouble keeping peace at home, job, school without eliminating this haven.